

DISCLAIMER

Please read these terms and conditions of use carefully as they relate to the anti-doping information published on the official website of PGTI. By using the service, you agree to be bound by these terms. We reserve the right to vary the terms of use at any time, thus you are advised to review the terms of use on a regular basis.

The information on “List of Permitted Substances” is intended for medical professionals only. Any information provided is not intended to serve as a substitute for clinical judgment and should not be relied upon solely for final treatment decisions. You are advised that approved drug information differs from country to country and the information may not be applicable outside of the country or region. If you are not a medical professional, you should note that this “List of Permitted Substances” does not provide professional medical advice and is not intended to replace personal consultation with a qualified physician.

Although great effort has been made in compiling and checking the information contained in this “List of Permitted Substances” to ensure that it is accurate, the publisher, the authors, editors and their servants or agents shall not be responsible or in any way liable for the continued currency of the information or for any errors, omissions or inaccuracies whether arising from negligence or otherwise howsoever, or for any consequences arising therefrom.

Any reference to any medicinal product which has been or may be provided by the publisher, the authors, editors and their servants or agents does not amount to a promise that such medicinal product will be available at any time.

This “List of Permitted Substances” contains a list of medicinal products that are registered in India only. If you use this list to search for a medicinal product and no search results are available, it could mean it is not a registered medicinal product in India and may still contain Prohibited Substances.

This list does not contain information on, or that applies to, dietary supplements. If you use this list to search for the individual ingredients, the supplement may contain prohibited substances even if your search results reveal that the ingredients on the label are not prohibited. Some supplements have been known to contain unlisted ingredients which may contain banned substances. The use of any supplement, traditional medicine, herbal, or any other nutritional product is at your own risk.

PGTI players are advised that in all instances, you must check with a Sports Medicine Specialist for final advise and prescription of medicines.

You expressly acknowledge and agree that the publisher, the authors, editors and their servants or agents and their agents are not responsible for the results of your decisions resulting from the use of the products mentioned/listed on the official website of PGTI.

These terms and conditions of use are governed by the laws of India and you agree that the courts of Gurgaon shall have exclusive jurisdiction in any dispute. If any part of these terms and conditions of use is found to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, then such part shall, to that extent, be severed from the remaining terms and conditions, and remaining part(s) shall remain in full force and effect as permitted by law.
